Board Action

Consent Order dated 2/15/06. A complaint was filed with the Arkansas State Board of Chiropractic Examiners against Floyd B. Bonnette, III, D.C., ("Respondent") License No. 947. If substantiated, the allegations set forth in the Complaint would constitute a violation by Respondent of the Rules & Regulations of this Board, Part Two, Section C, Subsection 2 (o). In lieu of a formal hearing on these issues, the undersigned pmiies enter into this Consent Agreement as a final disposition of this matter.

I. At all times petiaining to this matter, the Respondent held a license as a Chiropractor that was issued by the Board. The Complaint alleged that copies of patient records were illegible and medical records could not be deciphered to determine the services documented or the justification for them.

II. If the allegations were proven tme at a hearing, they would constitute a violation of Board Regulation (C)(2)(o), which would constitute unprofessional conduct and grounds for disciplinary action. "Failure to keep accurate records, which reflect the diagnosis and treatment of individual patients."

III. Without specifically admitting to the above allegations, the Respondent admits that he acted in an unprofessional matter with regard to his record keeping in violation of the Rules and Regulations of this Board. Both the Respondent and the Board wish to resolve this matter without the necessity of an frljJ:licatocy, hearing. The Respondent is hereby ordered by the Board as follows:

Disciplinary Action

Consent Order
(a) Respondent must attend a twelve (12) hour seminar in, "Record Keeping Documentation" to be completed by September 29, 2006.
(b) The Respondent is hereby placed on probation until the completion of the course.

Board Action

Hearing held April 22, 1999 and June 3, 1999. Ms. Vargo testified at Dr. Buhr's hearing on April 22, 1999. Hearing held April 22, 1999 and June 3, 1999.
FINDINGS OF FACT
1. Dr. Buhr holds the license to practice chiropractic that was issued by this Board and is subject to the applicable legal authorities listed above.
2. Dr. Buhr engaged in unprofessional conduct on or about December 2, 1998, by striking Norma Jean ("Gina") Logue, a resident of Springdale, AR, who was one of his employees at Family Chiropractic in Springdale, on the head twice after she delivered a file to him in a treatment room, whereupon, after striking her, he verbally berated her by stating, "Gina. Think. Use your brain!"
3 . Dr. Buhr engaged in sexual impropriety which amounts to sexual misconduct and is an unprofessional act with regard to Ms. Kristi Gregory, a resident of Rogers, AR, and an automobile accident victim during March, 1997, who became a patient of Dr. Buhr for several chiropractic treatments in the weeks following her accident. On the occasion of Ms. Gregory's last treatment, Dr. Buhr pinned her to a bench and growled at her in a sexually suggestive manner.
4. The complaint brought against Dr. Buhr by Tammy Moore, a resident of Springdale, AR, for incidents that allegedly occurred in 1993, was dismissed.

Disciplinary Action

ORDER
Based on the findings of fact and conclusions of law above, the Board orders that
Dr. Lynn F. Buhr be fined $5,000.00 for each of the two violations listed in the findings of fact above, for a grand total of $10,000.00, to be paid within thirty (30) days of the entry of this order, and that Dr. Buhr's license to practice chiropractic be suspended for three (3) years. Additionally, at the conclusion of the 3-year period of suspension, the Board orders that Dr. Buhr shall be placed on probation for five (5) years. If any new complaints are brought against Dr. Buhr and then substantiated during the period of suspension and probation, Dr. Buhr's license to practice chiropractic will be automatically revoked. The Board granted Dr. Buhr's oral motion for a stay. Therefore, it is ordered that the 3 -year period of suspension begins sixty (60) days after the entry of this order.

There were four separate complaints filed all of which alleged that DebraL. Callahan had performed manipulations and adjustments and had practiced chiropractic while in the employment of Callahan Chiro Clinic and at the direction and knowledge of Jeff Callahan, DC, without a valid chiropractic license in the state of AR.

Disciplinary Action

Jeff Callahan, DC, shall pay a civil penalty of $1000 within 90 days and placed on probation for a period of two yrs. Any violation of this would be grounds for revocation of his license. Refrain from solicitation which is misleading, fraudulent, deceptive or dishonest. Serve under suspension of his license for a period of one month which shall be served in increments of at least seven days at a time. Said thirty day suspension shall be fully and completely served no later than the first week of January 1993, which shall end on January 9, 1993.

Felon in Possession of Firearms

Disciplinary Action

C-1. By being convicted of a felony, as set forth in paragraphs A-2 through A-3 and A-6 above, Respondent is guilty of unprofessional conduct under Regulations Part 2.C.2(e) of the Regulations of the Arkansas State Board of Chiropractic Examiners, which is itself a violation of Ark. Code Ann. § 17-81-313(a)(6). The conviction also constitutes a violation of Ark. Code Ann. § 17-81-313(a)(2). C-2. The Board finds that the charge in paragraph C-2 of the Notice of Hearing in this matter (potential violation of Ark. Code Ann. § 17-81-313(a)) is unsubstantiated, and that charge is therefore dismissed. ORDER: In light of the violation found in paragraph C-1 of this order, the Board orders Respondent to pay to the Board $2,500 as a civil penalty. This amount must be paid in full within six months of the date of this order. The Respondent's license shall also be placed on probation for a period of five years from the date of this order.

Consent Order

Disciplinary Action

Respondent's conduct constitutes a violation of Board Regulations C(2)(n), C(2)(o), and C(2)(t). Consent Order in lieu of a formal hearing. Respondent agrees that under no circumstances will he engage in the administration of any kind of injections to any person(s) in the future, and further agrees that any such administration will constitute a violation of this Order, resulting in the immediate suspension of his chiropractic license followed by a hearing before the Board to determine whether revocation is appropriate. Respondent's license shall be suspended for a period of 6 months, beginning retroactively on 11/5/08. Respondent's chiropractic license shall be reinstated, subject to the following provisions: 1) Probation for a period of 2 years, 2) Obey all federal, state, and local laws, and all rules and regulations governing the practice of chiropractic in this state, 3) During the period of suspension, retake the Jurisprudence section of the Arkansas Licensing Exam, 4) Pay a civil penalty of $10,000. Payment of the penalty is a condition that must be satisfied prior to the reinstatement of Respondent's license. Upon payment of the penalty and completion of the terms of the suspension, Respondent's license shall be reinstated. In the event that Respondent is not able to satisfy the civil penalty imposed herein by the end of the 6 month period of suspension, his license shall remain suspended until the civil penalty is satisfied.

Board Action

Hearing 10/30/97.The Board orders that Dr. Monson's license be suspended for 90 days. Dr. Monson is placed on probation for 10 years. Dr. Monson is ordered to pay a civil penalty in the amount of $2,000 within one year of this date. The payment is to be made on or before October 30, 1998. Dr. Monson will be required to have an assistant present whenever he performs manipulations or adjustments on clients whether they be male or female. It is the direction of the Board that the assistant not be a member of his family. Dr. Monson may keep his practice open during the 90 day suspension if a licensed chiropractor, approved by the Board, performs all examinations and treatments. It is the responsibility of Dr. Monson to arrange to have his treating psychologist make a report to the Board every six months.

Board Action

A hearing was held on October 16, 2014

THIS IS CURRENTLY UNDER JUDICIAL REVIEW AS OF NOVEMBER 26, 2014.

Disciplinary Action

The Board decided that the Licensee's actions constitute a violation of the Ark. Code Ann. § 17-81-313(a)(7), in that Licensee double-billed State Farm for the treatments he rendered to two of his patients – billing through his billing company agent, United Anesthesia Associates, and also billing directly from his clinic, Wilson Spine Centers, for the same services, thereby committing fraud or deceit in filing insurance forms.

ORDER

1. Licensee shall pay a fine of $1000.00 for each violation stated above, for a total of $2,000.00.
2. Licensee shall have a period of one year from October 27, 2014 to pay the fine.
3. Pursuant to Arkansas Code Annotated § 25-15-212, Respondent may petition for judicial review of this decision by filing a petition in the Circuit Court in the county in which he resides or in the Circuit Court of Pulaski County within thirty days after service of this Order.
