

Remedy of Solicitation Specifications

A prospective bidder, offeror, or contractor who is aggrieved in connection with the solicitation of a contract may protest to the State Procurement Director or to the head of the procurement agency which issued the solicitation. The protest must be received at least three (3) working days prior to the opening of the solicitation in order to allow time for review, addendum (if necessary), and reposting of the solicitation.

Contract Award Protests

An actual bidder, offeror, or contractor who is aggrieved in connection with the award of a contract may protest to the State Procurement Director or to the head of the procurement agency which issued the solicitation. The protest shall be submitted in writing within fourteen (14) calendar of the posting of the anticipation to award the contract.
