

VIII. COMPLAINTS, DISPOSITIONS & WORKLOAD DATA

The Judicial Discipline and Disability Commission received 244 complaints and disposed of 235 complaints during the calendar year 2009. The following tables show statistical data on the complaints processed in 2008.

Table 1

2009 Source of Complaints

Anonymous	6
Commission's Motion	2
Attorneys	6
Litigants	208
Judge/Court Personnel	3
Non-litigating Individual	13
Non-litigating Family Member	15
Public Official	1

This table reflects a breakdown of the source of the complaints. Clearly, litigants are the most frequent party to initiate a complaint.

VIII. COMPLAINTS, DISPOSITIONS & WORKLOAD DATA

The Judicial Discipline and Disability Commission received 285 complaints and disposed of 280 complaints during the calendar year 2010. The following tables show statistical data on the complaints processed in 2010.

Table 1

2010 Source of Complaints

Anonymous	12
Commission's Motion	2
Attorneys	10
Litigants	221
Judge/Court Personnel	0
Non-litigating Individual	17
Non-litigating Family Member	24
Public Official	0

This table reflects a breakdown of the source of the complaints. Clearly, litigants are the most frequent party to initiate a complaint.

VIII. COMPLAINTS, DISPOSITIONS & WORKLOAD DATA

The Judicial Discipline and Disability Commission received 285 complaints and disposed of 280 complaints during the calendar year 2010. The following tables show statistical data on the complaints processed in 2010.

Table 1

2011 Source of Complaints

Anonymous	12
Commission's Motion	2
Attorneys	10
Litigants	221
Judge/Court Personnel	0
Non-litigating Individual	17
Non-litigating Family Member	24
Public Official	0

This table reflects a breakdown of the source of the complaints. Clearly, litigants are the most frequent party to initiate a complaint.